

Yaziz Hasan is responsible for managing, supervising, coordinating and organizing the activities in nuclear cooperation of the National Nuclear Energy Agency of Indonesia (BATAN), as well as the assessment of international legal framework of nuclear energy. Previously, he was responsible for managing, supervising, coordinating and organizing the activities in nuclear security and physical protection of nuclear material and facilities of BATAN. He is also a member of Topical Group on Regulatory Infrastructure of the IAEA-Asian Nuclear Safety Network since 2010.