How to register for an IAEA Conference/Symposia and submit a Scientific Paper

NUCLEUS

1. Create a mandatory NUCLEUS account, or use your existing NUCLEUS credentials, to enable conference registration and paper submission

Note: If you have forgotten your NUCLEUS username/password, click here to reset it

INDICO

Note: Skip steps 2-4 if you are not submitting a paper

2. If you are submitting a scientific paper, navigate to INDICO (the IAEA's submission system) and log in using your NUCLEUS username and password

3. Upload your scientific paper as indicated

4. Upon submission, an INDICO ID-number will be generated. This number is mandatory to confirm paper submission when registering for the conference/symposia in InTouch+ (see steps 5-7)

INTOUCH+

5. Log in to InTouch+ using your NUCLEUS username and password

6. Register for the relevant conference/symposia and upload your scientific paper by following these steps. The INDICO ID-number generated in steps 2-4 is required if submitting a paper

Note: To submit a paper (form B) or request financial support (form C), tick the relevant check boxes under "Attendee Questions" as shown here (navigate to "Apply for an event" section)

7. Submit your registration (applications left in draft will not be considered). Once submitted, your application and the auto-generated forms will automatically be routed to the required authority for their action and if approved, subsequently forwarded to the IAEA
