

Meena Singelee

BIO

Meena Singelee is the Executive Director of INENS. Her responsibilities include overseeing external relations, managing the Steering Committee and staff, the network and the research projects. She is one of the founding members of INENS.

She has previously consulted for London-based NGOs and not-for-profit organizations on nuclear issues. She has worked for the European Commission and the South Korean Embassy in London. She has also interned for Mark Fitzpatrick at the International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS) and volunteered at the Verification Research, Training and Information Centre (VERTIC).

Meena holds an MPhil in International Law from the University of Bristol (UK), specialising on managing compliance within the NPT. She also holds an M.Sc. in International Relations and B.Sc. in Politics, also from Bristol.